

June 18, 2021

HEALTH CARE

Jessica Fear, Visiting Nurse Service of New York

Senior Vice President, Community Mental Health Services

Jessica Fear, LMFT, is the new Senior Vice President of Community Mental Health Services at Visiting Nurse Service of New York. A behavioral health service industry leader specializing in population health management for children, adolescents, families and adults with chronic medical and behavioral health conditions, Ms. Fear returns to VNSNY after serving as VP of Behavioral Health Services for HealthFirst. Previously at VNSNY she was Director of Children's Services and the Health Home.

